We have had a very exciting week with many special activities and events held to finish off Term 2 with a bang! Congratulations to all our students, parents and teachers on the very successful Student Led Conferences that were held last Tuesday. Data from our PTO booking system revealed that 601 bookings were made for the conferences. Great to see so many families attend and hear so many positive comments. A huge thank you to our teachers for their preparation and time dedicated to make the conferences so worthwhile.

Staffing

Our Assistant Principal Hugh O’Brien will be taking long service leave for the first four weeks of Term Three. We wish Hugh all the best for his trip to Europe and hope he has a wonderful time seeing the sights. During his absence Mr Jason Antoniou will be in the Acting AP role for the first two weeks and Mrs Julie Moncrieff for the second two weeks. We know both Jason and Julie will do an excellent job as APs. We will be welcoming Mr Luke Colthup to take 5A and Mrs Paulina Welbourne to take Prep E during this time (week 3 & 4 of Term 3).

A reminder that we have our final assembly on Friday morning at 9.10am – all welcome. School dismissal on Friday is at 2.30pm. I would like to take this opportunity to wish all our school community a happy and safe holiday. I look forward to seeing you all back at school on Monday 15th July, refreshed and energised for a sensational Term 3.

PTA Dates to remember……..

The Scout Raffle Tickets to be returned to the school sold or not by Friday 26th July.

Saturday 10th August pop in to Bunnings Mornington and support MMPS by buying a sausage in bread and / or drink.

Movie Nights - Prep, Year 1 & 2….more information to come, but pencil in Friday 2nd August.
